

Corn Syrup

BIOREFINING PROCESS SOURCE

Wet mill corn processing

DESCRIPTION

Corn syrup is a liquid sugar that can be refined to make high fructose corn syrup. Corn syrup helps prevent crystallization and is commonly used in baked goods and candy.

PRICE

$27/ton¹

MARKET SIZE

2.2 million tons²

REFERENCES

¹ “Table 7—U.S. wholesale list price for glucose syrup, Midwest markets, monthly, quarterly, and by calendar and fiscal year.” USDA Economic Research Service.

<http://www.ers.usda.gov/Briefing/Sugar/Data/Table07.xls> (3 June 2004)

² “Table 50—U.S. per capita caloric sweeteners estimated deliveries for domestic food and beverage use, by calendar year.” USDA Economic Research Service.

<http://www.ers.usda.gov/briefing/sugar/Data/Table50.xls> (3 June 2004)

Corn syrup. Food Reference. <http://www.foodreference.com/html/fcornsyrup.html> (23 April 2004).